Dear Mr. Carter:

You will recall that several years ago, I wrote you in connection with the book I was writing on the life of Will Rogers. I have at last completed the work and under separate cover I am forwarding to you an autographed copy of the book. I sincerely trust that you will like the book.

I have included in the volume your letter to me dated April 7, 1933, since I, as well as my publisher, felt that the book would be incomplete without your splendid tribute to this great character, especially since that tribute was written about Will when he was still a vital part of our life.

With kindest regards and the Season's greetings, I am

Respectfully yours,

DAVID R. MILSTEN
