To-
Mr. Amon Carter,
Editor, Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Sir-

Texas owes to you, a profound debt of gratitude for your courage, in uncovering and rectifying a great wrong to her people.

That any citizens of our State should have mis-handled Roger's Memorial Funds, is a matter for wide-spread indignation and humiliation, - especially, at such a time, when we are before the eyes of the world, (and ,the world loved Will Rogers), - when we are preparing to glorify the character of our great State, with a magnificent celebration.

Roger's memory is enshrined in the hearts of Texans, and, particularly, Fort Worthians, with more tender recollection than most other states can cherish- for, he was so often our guest, and counted many of our citizens among his closest and best-loved friends. That any man within our borders should turn ghoulish, rob his grave, and defraud cripples and unfortunates, by mis-appropriation of these sacred funds- that any Texan could so dishonor us, and sell his birthright at so mean a gain, -this is a public shame that cries to heaven for retribution. You were Roger's beloved friend, and we of Texas, who loved him, too, thank you for this courageous indictment of dishonesty in high places.

Sincerely,
from-

One who loved Will Rogers
