

T. C. U. F A C U L T Y B U L L E T I N

---

Vol. 1

May 28, 1930

No. 26

---

"The formal opening of the cafeteria will be Thursday night," according to Dean Beckhan. "All trustees of the school who live in town are invited to come and bring their wives. Mr. Sniser will make a short talk and Jarvis Hall girls will furnish special music."

****

All senior girls who have ever lived in Jarvis Hall will be entertained with a party at 9 o'clock Thursday night, according to Dean Beckhan.

****

"Those faculty members who have devoted their time to the sponsoring of various student activities have made a valuable contribution to the student life and should be commended," said Dean Leftwich. "The class sponsors, Mrs. Armerman, Miss Spragins, Miss Moore and Prof. Ballard have done fine work this year."

****

The library has received a number of new books. The Anti-Saloon League of America sent a large number of pamphlets and books on prohibition. Other new books are:

Thomas Holley, Friend of Poe---Damon
Educational Directory---Patterson
Treatise on the Gods---Mencken
Encyclopaedia of Food---Ward
Enraptured Yankee---Emerson
Evolution of Earth and Man---Batsell

****

"I would appreciate it if all faculty members would turn in their library books before leaving for the summer," says Mr. Curry.

****

Several days ago a list of freshmen was sent out to the faculty members for a personnel report. Most of these have been returned to the registrar's office, but there are still a few out. Please get them in before you leave for the summer.

****

All faculty members will please leave their summer address, or addresses, in the registrar's office at the time they turn in their grade reports.

****

The Sherers have a house that they would like to rent furnished for the summer. This might be useful to some faculty member or student in the summer school.

****