

Each teacher is requested to send to the Registrar the names of students who need to take the course in Penmanship---soon. The class starts Monday, Oct. 13, 1:00 P. M., Brite 101. Better still---speak to the student and advise him to report directly to Miss Williamson. That will save time and be more influential with the student.
(Dean Hall)

Any faculty members interested in chess, please see Dr. Combs. There is hope of reviving the defunct faculty chess club.

All members of the faculty are cordially invited to hear Dr. Pharr of Vanderbilt University speak on "Virgil and Christianity" in chapel Oct. 22 at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Cahoon will be the guest of radio station WFAA, Dallas, tomorrow, when she will be one of the judges in the state finals of the Atwater Kent radio contest.

David Bruce Scoular will sing for the Kiwanis Club Monday.

Next Wednesday morning, Mr. Scoular will sing a group of German songs at the Euterpean Club. Miss Boyd will be his accompanist.

Mrs. Beckhan announces that the Midnight Jamboree was a big success. There was a splendid attendance. 20 per cent of the proceeds will go to the junior class.

The second of the formal dinners will be held in the cafeteria next Wednesday night. Students and faculty members on the committee of the University Religious Fellowship will be the guests.

The band, under the direction of Prof. Sarmis, played for the opening of the Fourth Street underpass last night. Prof. E. W. McDiarmid gave a short talk and issued an invitation to the people to attend the dedication of the new stadium. The program was broadcast over station KTAT.

"The Spirit of 1492," a four-act historical pageant, will be presented Sunday evening at 7 p. m. in the chapel in celebration of Columbus Day. From the cast and rehearsals, this program promises to be very interesting. Faculty members and their families are urged to attend these programs and help the Fellowship succeed. (Dean Leftwich.)
