A PAGEANT OF THANKSGIVING *

Given by the Pageantry Class of the Women's Physical Education Department. Music by the University Chorus

7 p.m. Sunday, November 23
T.C.U. Auditorium

Hymn, "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow", Congregation

Prologue: Spirit of Thanksgiving
Despair; and Hope

Episode I
Primitive people make offerings to the gods whom they fear, as well as worship.

Episode II
Once each year the Greeks went to the shrine of Athens with a robe woven for their patron goddess.

Episode III
The crowning achievement of St. Augustine's missionary efforts in Britain was the conversion of the King of Kent.

Episode IV
The first American Thanksgiving. The Pilgrims after their first year in the new world met to return thanks to God for their preservation and to feast with their Indian neighbors.
(With the coming of the American Flag, the congregation will sing "America".)

*******

*Eighty people will participate in the pageant and chorus combined.
