Surplices are being made for the special Palm Sunday service which will be given in the University auditorium March 29 by the University Chorus. The members of the faculty who attend the Monday afternoon rehearsal may get their garment then--cut out and ready to sew. Mrs. Cahoon has taken the responsibility of ordering and paying for the material. She would deeply appreciate the cooperation of the faculty in making their own garments as the students are doing, and paying 50 cents for the material.

The physics department has erected a revolving magnetic field which will cause a piece of metal of any kind to spin in a mysterious manner. The experiment was set up by Brant Conway and Misses Lucille Gosney and Arnette Gonner.

****

The A. & M. College Glee Club and the T. C. U. Band will give a joint concert in the University auditorium Thursday night at 8 o'clock. The appearance of the glee club with the band will be the first of a three-day tour through North Texas.

"The Soldiers Chorus" from "Faust" will be one of high spots on the glee club program. The whole program will include classical, semi-classical and popular numbers. Folk tunes of America and Europe will also be featured.

Following the program in the auditorium, the Frogettes and Upperettes will hold open house in Jarvis Hall, honoring the glee club and band. The faculty members are invited to attend the open house.

The band played in chapel Friday morning and will play again Wednesday morning, advertising the program.
