

The administration announces that an extra holiday will be granted for Tuesday. Regular classes will be resumed Wednesday morning. Double cuts will be counted for absences Wednesday and Thursday.

The regular monthly faculty meeting has been postponed because of the extra holiday Tuesday. The meeting will be held Tuesday night, April 14, in the Jarvis Hall parlors.

Prof. Elliott has an article on the "Classification and Economic Status of the Tenantry of a Texas Cotton Plantation" in the March issue of the Southwestern Political and Social Science Quarterly. This paper is adopted from a more comprehensive study of the same estate by Prof. Elliott entitled "An Economic Survey of a Texas Cotton Plantation as to Tenantry, Tenancy and Management," presented as a dissertation to the graduate faculty of the University of Texas.

Prof. Frank Woodhall Hogan will lecture on "Science and Scientists" on the T. C. U.-WBAP College of the Air Tuesday afternoon from 2:30 to 3 o'clock.

As a project in Physics 32 (Light, Photography and Sound), Brant Conway, student assistant in the physics department, has worked out a device involving a special microphone, an amplifier and a loud speaker which makes heart beats audible throughout a large room, thus duplicating in the T. C. U. physics laboratory one of the main features of a recent Bell Telephone Laboratories' exhibition.

Dr. George R. Whieland, professor of paleontology in Yale University, visited the biology department during the past week. Dr. Whieland is working on some plant fossils at Stephenville.

Places for the faculty members are still open in the chorus for "The Sunset Trail." All faculty members who care to sing in the chorus are invited to attend either the rehearsals with the T. C. U. Chorus or the general rehearsals held each Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Christian Church.

Mrs. Cahoon invites the faculty to attend her spring recital which will be held in the University auditorium April 14 at 4 o'clock. The advanced voice students of Mrs. Cahoon will be presented. Those who will appear on the program are Misses Neta Maye Shaw and Annabel

Hall, Mrs. Ross Wright, Mrs. Lora Costan Bridges and Travis Johnson. Mrs. Bridges and Mr. Johnson are from Dallas.

The T. C. U. Band will parade for the Fort Worth Straw Hat Day which will be held sometime in April. Each member of the band will be presented with a new straw hat. The band is parading under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce.

The band will also parade for "Cat Day," which marks the opening game of the Fort Worth baseball club on April 17.

Prof. Lord, Prof. W. C. Smith, Prof. Elliott, Prof. Baker and Dean Leftwich will take part on the program for the annual meeting of the Southwestern Political and Social Science Association in Oklahoma City April 3 and 4.

All Jewish students are eligible to be excused from classes on April 2, 3, 8, and 9 on account of the Passover Feast.
