

Prof. Morro will preach at the 11 o'clock service of the University Christian Church. His topic will be, "The Church and the Disciples of Christ."

The University Religious Fellowship will present a Columbus Day program at 7 o'clock in front of the Main Building. Prof. Hammond will direct the program and history students will participate in the services.

-----

Prof. Elliott will begin a lecture series of twelve talks Monday night before the Dallas Civic Federation. "Present Day Trends In Economics," will be the general subject of the series.

Elmer Staude is serving as a scholar, and Elmer Davis as a fellow in the department of economics.

Prof. Ashburn has thirteen students in his evening class, "Texas Industrial Problems."

-----

Prof. Morro was elected chairman of the University Christian Church board at a meeting held Wednesday night.

-----

Prof. W. C. Smith is the one and only faculty sponsor of the Y. M. C. A. group this year.

-----

Mrs. Beckham and Miss Spragins wish to announce a party for junior transfer students to be held in Jarvis Hall Monday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock. Mrs. Beckham reports that each year sees a larger number of junior transfer students entering T. C. U. "The junior colleges," says Miss Spragins, "are probably the cause of this."

-----

The dean of women and her assistant are "keeping tab" on the extracurricular activities of women students through an extensive book-keeping and informational card service.

Mrs. Beckham wants it made known that she has always been in favor of the library remaining open until 10 o'clock, and reports being pleased at the new ruling in this regard.

The journalism department is now located in two rooms in the basement of the gymnasium. Entrance is made through the middle door on the south side of the building. The room numbers are G2 and G3. Those wishing to communicate b. telephone with students will kindly ask for the "Journalism News Room." Mr. Ridings and Mr. Cowan do not have the same telephone; kindly ask for the one you want.

Prof. McDiarmid, editor of The Interpreter, has announced that publication has been suspended for the time being. ✓

Prof. Edwin A. Elliott will speak to the Men's Bible Class in Room 1 of the Main Building at 10 o'clock Sunday morning on the subject, "Causes and Social Effects of Unemployment."

Late Library Arrivals:

- Kroeber, A. L.-----Anthropology.
- Malin, J. C.-----United States After The War.
- Odenrantz, L. C.-----The Social Worker
- Tugwell, R. G.-----American Economic Life
- Hoover, C. B.-----Economic Life of Soviet Russia
- Marinoni, A.-----Elementary French Grammar
- Wright, C. H. C.-----History of French Literature
- Northup, G. T.-----Introduction to Spanish Literature
- World's Best Short Stories of 1930.
- Post, L. F.-----Basic Facts of Economics.
- Hutton, E.-----Cities of Spain
- Aristotle-----Ethics of Aristotle
- Machen, J. G.-----Virgin Birth of Christ
- Ladd, W.-----Essay on a Congress of Nations.
- Grotius, H.-----Freedom of the Seas.
- Hague International Peace Conference Proceedings, 2 vols.

Plans are under way for the Social Calendar Winter honoring sponsors of the University organizations. Mrs. Beckham is to be chairman of the following committee planning the affair: Dean Lafford, Mrs. Burpay, Mrs. Gibson, and Prof. Ballard.

Prof. Schmitz spoke at Jennings Avenue Junior High Wednesday, on the subject, "The String Section of a Modern Symphony Orchestra." He was assisted in this presentation by a string ensemble composed of T. C. U. music students.

Prof. Sherer is recovering from an illness and will return to class work soon.

Prof. Morris is suffering from an illness and is still able to make classes.

The Normal Prep Band will have charge of the Fellowship program Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Entertainment music will make up a large part of the program. Dean Lafford will conduct the prayer service.

Mr. Curry reports that the committee is busy in doing up books for the students and in preparing for the