

T. C. U. FACULTY BULLETIN

Vol. ~~II~~
III

December 11, 1931

No. 13

The University Religious Fellowship group will present a three-act Christmas play, "The Tinker," Sunday evening in the auditorium at 7 o'clock. Prof. Fallis is director of the play and Clyde Yarbrough will have one of the leading parts.

Miss Rebecca Smith is the author of an article, "The Source of Pandemonium," which appears in the November number of Modern Philology.

Prof. W. C. Smith has received an invitation to appear on the program of the Institute of Oriental Students for the Study of Human Relations which is to be held in Chicago during the Christmas holidays.

Dean Hall has returned from Montgomery, Ala., where he attended a meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, which convened from Dec. 1 to 4. Dean Hall has been present at every meeting since the Association was formed. He was elected president of the Conference of Deans of the association.

Honoring sponsors of the student organizations, the Social Calendar Committee will give a dinner in the University dining room Monday night at 7 o'clock. Dean Leftwich will open the program with the recognition of the various sponsors and President Waits will speak on "Student Activities in the Modern College." Dean Hall will address the group on the subject, "Development of the Social Life in T. C. U."

The Social Calendar Committee is composed of Mrs. Beekham, chairman; Mrs. Helen Murphy, Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon, Miss Life Spraggins, Prof. Ballard, and Dean Leftwich.

Dr. H. L. Warwick, local eye, ear, nose, and throat specialist, demonstrated his magnetic sound producing outfit at the Science Seminar meeting last Wednesday. Prof.

Chambers is head of the seminar this year.

Prof. Elliott will speak at the Lion's Club next Tuesday, on the subject, "The Prospects of a Business Revival."

Prof. Elliott and Dean Leftwich had dinner in Dallas last Sunday with Norman Thomas, who addressed the Dallas Open Forum.

The Horned Frog Band, reports Prof. Sammis, played at the Lion's Club last Tuesday. The state convention of band masters is to be held in this city in January. Prof. Sammis is aiding the local Chamber of Commerce with arrangements.

Prof. Guchlick announces the second student music recital to be held in the University auditorium, Wednesday, Dec. 16, at 8 o'clock. Thirteen students will take part and all faculty members and friends are invited.

Prof. McDiarmid addressed the Y. W. C. A. group Wednesday night on the subject of "Christmas."

Mrs. Roy W. Bixler, president of Pi Lambda Theta, national educational fraternity for women, visited Dean and Mrs. Leftwich last week.

Late Library Arrivals:

- Mitchell, W. C.-----Business Cycles
- Weidlein, & Hamor-----Science in Action
- Major, R.-----Dostor Explains
- Fosdick, H. C.-----Twelve Tests in Character
- Mearns, H.-----Creative Youth
- Sinclair, U.-----Wet Parade
- Blunt, A. V. F.-----Israel Before Christ
- Sizer, J. P. -----Commercialization of Leisure
- Phillips, W.-----Poland
- Peery, R. B.-----Gist of Japan
- Montgomery, H. B.-----King's Highway
- Robinson, C. M.-----The Improvement of Towns and Cities
- Barton, J. L.-----Missionary and His Critics
- Barton, J. L.-----Unfinished Task of the Christian Church
- Felton, R. A.-----Our Templed Hills
- Zwemer, Samuel-----Moslem Women
- McLean, A.-----Primacy of the Missionary
- Fernald, J. C.-----The New Womanhood
- Bishop, I. B.-----Korea and Her Neighbors

#####