

Vol. III in the University January 22, 1932 No. 17

Prof. Elliott spoke before the Y. M. C. A. Thursday night. His subject was "Some of the More Current Economic Problems."

Prof. Ashburn addressed the Dana Press Club meeting Wednesday on the subject, "Reportorial Experiences."

Prof. Cameron addressed the Men's Sunday School class last Sunday in place of Dean Hall, who was out of the city. Dean Hall will speak this Sunday, however, according to Prof. Welty.

"The Ideal Home and Its Stimulus for Intellectual Life," will be the topic of Prof. R. A. Smith's address at the Brooklyn Heights Church of Christ tonight.

Prof. Smith will also make the graduation address before the graduating class of Stripling High School.

Professors desiring to place books on the reserve list for the coming term should do so as soon as possible. If there are to be any removals from the reserve list prompt action on these will also be appreciated.

---Mr. Curry

Prof. Sherer announces his intentions of attending the meeting of the Texas section of the Mathematical Association of America which meets in Austin January 30. Prof. Sherer is an officer in the Texas section.

Mr. Cowan received notice that an observation article written by him on "Elementary Journalists," was accepted by "National Printer Journalist."

Prof. Sammis, violinist, and David Scouler, tenor, will appear in joint recital Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the University auditorium. Miss Adeline Boyd will serve as accompanist. This is the second of the monthly twilight recitals sponsored by the T. C. U. Woman's Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker entertained with a tea last Sunday afternoon in honor of the Co-ed Sunday school class.

Prof. Ballard has charge of preparatory arrangements for the sophomore minstrel show to be held in February.

The faculty will be hosts at a dinner to be given Friday evening at 6:15 o'clock in honor of Kirby Page.

Prof. Gaines appeared over KFJZ last Monday morning in a program of cowboy ballads.

Some late library arrivals:

- Lvendtz, H.-----Way Out of Depression
- Larousse, P.-----Dict. du XXe Siecle, v4
- Eddy, G. S.-----Challenge of the East
- Schmalhausen, S. D.-----Behold America
- Collins, J.-----Insomnia
- Bate & Wilson-----Studies in Voca. Information
- Cahoon, G. F.-----Commercial Art
- Muller, H. M.-----World Court
- Bloomfield, D.-----Chain Stores
- Chabot, F. C.-----San Fernando
- Biblioteca de autores-Espanoles
- Wright & Wright-----Elementary M. E. Grammar
- West, G. H.-----Gothic Architecture in England & France.
- Nethercot, A. H.-----Abraham Cowley
- Nuestra Ciudad, June 1930
- Staley, S. C.-----Games, Contests, and Relays
- Blake, W.-----Book of Thel
- Proceedings of Acad. of Pol. Sci. v. 14 #3
- Tacitus,-----Dialogus.

####

Cosch Schmidt was the principal speaker at the North Side Kiwanis Club at noon today.

Prof. Cameron is speaking before the Fellowship dinner service of First Christian Church at 6:20 p. m. today.

Prof. Elliott spoke over WCAP Thursday morning in the interest of the Home Industry Campaign.

"Causes and Cure of Unemployment," was the subject of an address given by Prof. Elliott Thursday night to a meeting and dinner held by the Business and Professional Women's Club at the University Club.

Prof. Sherer left for Austin this morning to attend the meeting of the Texas section of the American Mathematical Association. Prof. Sherer is vice-president of the organization.