

T. C. U. FACULTY BULLETIN

---

Vol. III

February 26, 1932

No. 22

---

Miss Rebecca Smith will address the Wichita Falls Teachers' Association Monday, Feb. 29, on the subject "Some Phases of American Literature."

-----

Prof. R. A. Smith spoke before the First Christian Church Fellowship last Sunday evening. "Education and Evangelism" was his subject.

-----

"Analysis of the Present Economic Situation" will be Prof. Elliott's topic to be presented before the Junior Women's Club this afternoon. The following night he will give the same address to a group at Baylor University.

-----

Prof. Winton reports that Dr. H. P. Byce, geologist for the Texas University oil lands, will address the Fort Worth Geological Society when it meets here in the biology laboratory, March 5.

Prof. Chambers announces that Dr. E. E. Vezey of the A. & M. physics department will speak to the Science Seminar at its next meeting on March 7. "The Making of Telescopes by Amateurs" will be his subject.

-----

Albert Luper, assistant in the violin department, has accepted the position of music director for the Oak Cliff Baptist Church in Dallas.

Prof. Sammis reports that band members will play at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show.

-----

Prof. McDiarmid is now working in the interests of the One Million Men Back to Work campaign being carried on throughout the country.

-----

Prof. W. C. Smith gave an illustrated lecture on India before the University Baptist Church last Sunday evening.

-----

"Texas Independence" will be the theme of the Bryson Club's program for the University Religious Fellowship Service Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the auditorium.

-----

The executive and faculty committees of the University Board of Trustees met Tuesday evening in the president's office to complete details for the 1932 administration and budget.

Those attending were: Van Zandt Jarvis, Rev. L. D. Anderson, C. A. Wheeler, H. W. Stark, W. W. Mars, E. E. Bewley, W. S. Cooke, D. G. McFadin and Dan D. Rogers.

-----

Mrs. Beckham reports that about fifty guests attended the Y. W. C. A. tea Sunday afternoon. Mrs. C. R. Sherer poured.

-----

Prof. Lockhart will be pastor of the University Christian Church for March. He will have as his subject a study of the "Truths of Yesterday in the Light of Today." Prof. Lord, who has been pastor of the Church for the past month, will deliver his final message, "Christianity--A Human Service," Sunday.

Prof. Morro spoke to the Woman's Club last Thursday on the subject "Job."

-----

Faculty members attending the farewell party given the Rev. Paul Logan Martin last week were: Dean Hall, Profs. Billington, McDiarmid, Hutton, and Jones.

-----

Prof. Clubb reports that the regular faculty meeting will be held Tuesday evening, March 1, at 7:30 o'clock in Jarvis Hall. Prof. Ziegler will speak on "Modern Tendencies in Art."

-----

The following students were absent from classes Feb. 19 and 20. They were attending the World Fellowship Meet in Wichita Falls.

Anniel Phares
 Dean Harrison
 George Graham
 Elizabeth Henry
 Jessie Hawkins
 Gordon Musgrove
 Edgar Bryan
 Herschel Gipson
 Evelyn Franklin
 Opal Longan

--E. R. Tucker, registrar

Mr. Curry reports that E. M. Todd of Harlingen made the library a present of 21 volumes of Expository Times. The library had already purchased a complete set of 41 volumes of this work. ✓

"Withdrawn" books:

Blackmore-----Lorna Doone
 Wilson-----Infelice
 Bronte-----Wildfel Hall
 Connor-----Corporal Cameron
 Dana-----Manual of Mineralogy and Petrography
 Eggleston-----The Hoosier Schoolmaster
 Dickens-----Oliver Twist

Some late books in the library:

Neff, L. H.-----Legal Status of Woman in Texas
 Brooks, E. E.-----Story of Cotton
 Wagner, J. E.-----Rural Evangelism
 Stevenson, R. T.----Missionary Interp. of History
 Marx, K.-----Lohnarbeit and Kapital
 Smith, A. H.-----Rex Christus
 Mitchell, J.-----Missionary Pioneer.