

UNIVERSITY RELIGIOUS FELLOWSHIP

presents

"True Greatness of the Twentieth Century"

T.C.U. Auditorium

March 6, 1932 7 P.M.

Program

Opening Music ----- Dan Packard

Hymn: "America the Beautiful," No. 86, led by S.W. Hutton

Prayer ----- Dr. John Lord

The Greatest Invention of the Twentieth Century -
John Hammond

The Greatest Piece of Poetry of the Twentieth Century
Thelma Breithaupt

A Contribution from everyone - Directed by a member of the U.R.F. Committee

The Greatest Book of the Twentieth Century -
Milton Mehl

Solo: -----Mrs. Jack Bailey

The Greatest Woman of the Twentieth Century -
Elizabeth Male

The Greatest Man of the Twentieth Century -
Marion Hicks

Benediction -----Dean L. L. Leftwich

-----

Note: The program this evening is sponsored by the Scholarship Society, Miss Clotilda Anne Houle, President.

Next Sunday, March 13, the Dana Press will be in charge of the program, Miss Ernestine Scott, president.

The program of March 20 will be a musical presentation under the direction of Mrs. Cahoon.