

April 5, 1937.

Mrs. Will Rogers,
Bank of America Bldg.,
Beverly Hills, Calif.

Dear Betty:

I thought you might be interested in seeing two clippings from the Star-Telegram showing the crowds that have been in the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. One was a recreation show staged by the City Recreation Department, sponsored by the Star-Telegram. The other was of the Evangelist Gipsy Smith's revival service.

The new grounds around the coliseum are going to be beautiful. Incidentally, from all indications we are going to have as good or better show this summer than last year. We are trying to work out now some plan for a suitable exhibit in the Will Rogers Memorial room in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Building. I am going to hang a similar steer head over the mantle and some Russell pictures and a few things that I can dig up that would be fitting with the room.

I hope you will be able to come by this year and see the show.

With best love to you, Mary and all the family, I am,

Sincerely,

ACC.KD