Mr. Spencer Penrose,
Colorado Springs, Colo.

On my return find your letter July Twenty Ninth extending an invitation to attend dedication of the Will Rogers Shrine of the Sun on Cheyenne Mountain September Sixth for which please accept my sincere thanks STOP Nothing would please me more than to be with you for this worthy occasion. Will Rogers, in my estimation, was America's greatest citizen and I want to congratulate you and to express my thanks and appreciation as one of Will's loyal friends for your generous, thoughtful and commendable deed Stop Some how or other I kind of feel like he knows that you are doing it and I can see the smile on his face while he would say, "Gee that is swell, but you shouldn't have spent the money on me STOP I am sure everything will follow through as you expect. At the first opportunity I want to see you and to inspect the Shrine. Sincerely

Amon Carter
