Dear Mr. Milsten:

Just prior to Mr. Carter's departure from the city he uncovered your letter of November 15th which had been in an accumulation of unanswered mail on his desk. He asked that I express his thanks and appreciation for your sending him a copy of your poem, "Howdy Folks!" and to tell you that he enjoyed it very much and thought it an excellent expression.

He is filing the poem away with the book "An Appreciation of Will Rogers."

With best wishes, I am

Yours very truly,

Secy. to Mr. Carter.
