WE HONOR THE MEMORY OF OKLAHOMA'S
BELOVED NATIVE SON, A MODEST, UNSPOILED
CHILD OF THE PLAINS, COWBOY, ACTOR,
HUMORIST AND WORLD TRAVELER WHOSE
HOMELY PHILOSOPHY AND SUPERIOR
GIFTS BROUGHT LAUGHTER AND TEARS
TO PRINCE AND COMMONER ALIKE. HIS AVERSION TO SHAM AND DECEIT, HIS LOVE OF CANDOR AND SINCERITY, COUPLED WITH ABUNDING WIT AND AFFABLE
REPARTEE, WON FOR HIM UNIVERSAL
HOMAGE AND AN APPROPRIATE TITLE,
"AMBASSADOR OF GOOD WILL."

THE CHEROKEE NATION
NOVEMBER 4TH, 1946, THE 67TH
ANNIVERSARY OF HIS BIRTH

IN MEMORIAM—J. Bartley Milam II, grandson of J. B. Milam, who was chief of the Cherokee Indian Nation, is shown unveiling a plaque in tribute to the late Will Rogers, cowboy humorist-philosopher, at memorial services in Claremore, Okla. It was presented by the Cherokee Nation Monday on the 67th anniversary of Rogers' birth. He was one-quarter Cherokee. (AP Wirephoto).
