

T. C. U. FACULTY BULLETIN

Vol. IV

October 21, 1932

No. 5

Faculty members pleased be advised that whatever mid-semester examination is given should come on or before Nov. 5, for grades close on that date and should be handed to the Registrar as soon thereafter as possible. At any rate, they should be handed in not later than Nov. 12. There is no special schedule for these examinations. They should be given within the regular class period.

-----

A meeting of the Classification Committee has been announced for Thursday at 2:30 o'clock.

-----

Departmental news that can be published in trade papers or professional publications will be gladly handled through the Department of Journalism. Advantage should be taken of these specialized outlets for publicity of departments that will benefit the institution as a whole. Material should be turned over to the Department of Journalism, from which it will be handled as other exclusive publicity stories.

-----

The U. R. F. program, which is to be given Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, will be in charge of Clark Hall.

-----

"A New Deal", a set of books by Stuart Chase, has been added to the library collection by classes in economics 137 and 147.

-----

Mrs. Cahoon invites the faculty members and students to attend a musicale Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the University Auditorium to hear Miss Daisy Polk, soprano, and Russell Curtis, pianist and accompanist. David Guion, Texas composer, will be the honored guest. ✓
