

The bi-monthly faculty business meeting will be held Monday at 4 p. m. in the amphitheater.

Here is a stricture on faculties copied from a book published in 1920:

"Perhaps the most anomalous fact in college education today is that they never do get together for this vital educational program. Hours are spent in the discussion of grades; of credits, of rule upon rule, revised and re-revised; and the machinery of education is, indeed, oiled and polished and frequently repaired."

Is this true of our faculty? The bi-monthly "business" meetings afford opportunity to overcome it.

The accompanying eligibility report must be in the registrar's office by noon Monday.

These cards are available in the registrar's office and their use by teachers will strengthen our program of student guidance: "Delinquency," "Removal of 'I' Grade," "Drop and Add," "Change of Section."

Faculty members who have not already done so are requested to post their mid-semester grades. This will satisfy student inquiry and conserve time for both teacher and office.

Thanksgiving holidays include Thursday, Nov. 30, through Sunday, Dec. 3. Double cuts for missing last recitation before holidays and first recitation after holidays.

B. C. B. students will be in charge of chapel next Wednesday. Rev. E. B. King, Hemphill Presbyterian Church, will be the speaker. Presence of faculty members will be appreciated.
