The Government Aid to Students through the F. E. R. A. was given final approval in Austin Thursday. Teachers will please announce this to these new students so they may be assured of their status. ✓

Friday morning we have enrolled 21 boys and 10 girls. These are now fully enrolled, and class cards are being sent today.

The endeavor is being made to get the other 9 boys and 18 girls completed by Monday so teachers may check the whole list together over the back work.

Dean Hall.

The special committee appointed by the President to consider and report on policies of the Committee on Honor submits the following report:

1. Any case of dishonesty may usually be handled by a teacher, but in a case which he deems grave enough to be penalized, his findings must be reported to the Committee and approved before becoming final.

2. All cases of dishonesty in tests, examinations, or preparation of work will be dealt with in accord with the following principles: (1) in all ordinary cases the one convicted shall forfeit credit for the course; (2) in aggravated or repeated cases, the consequences may be suspension from the university.

3. That the name "Committee on Honor" be changed to "Committee on Academic Honesty".
