Our file of catalogs in the Registrar's office is being brought up to date. New catalogs are being received daily. We are endeavoring to keep on file catalogs from leading institutions in every state for use of teachers and patrons.

Mis-Semester exams close tomorrow, November 17, and grades are due in the Registrar's office not later than the 24th. We will appreciate your early response that grade cards to parents may be in the mail before the Thanksgiving holidays.

Be sure to get this announcement clear. November 17, Saturday, (Homecoming Day) 8 and 9 o'clock classes will meet as usual. The 10, 11, and 12 o'clock classes will be omitted.

November 24 is to be a full holiday for the official trip to Houston. The Saturday morning classes will meet on Friday morning 8 to 1, and the Friday morning, November 23rd classes will be omitted. Absences on the date immediately preceding or following a holiday will be counted double. Friday afternoon classes and labs will be held on Friday as usual.

Please excuse the following students from their 8 and 9 o'clock classes Monday morning, November 12, 1934. They did not get back from their trip to New Orleans.
