Mrs. Katrine Deakins
Star-Telegram
Fort Worth
Texas

Dear Katrine:

The enclosed are merely suggestions as to how the invitations might be done. I have no knowledge as to the time of the luncheon or the place but think the invitations should be informals enclosed in the same envelope with the dedication invitation. In this way the people to attend the luncheon would be obligated to reply and separate invitations would not have to be mailed.

All this has probably been done but Mr. Carter asked for it, so here it is. Please do just as you see fit and if anything I can do will be helpful just 'holler'.

The list of invitations that was misplaced was in duplicate but Mrs. Biggs has some additions so I will go over it tomorrow and send you a new list. If, however, you would like me to send out the invitations for you, I can do it and would be glad to take it off your hands.

Again please feel free to call on me at any time.

Sincerely,

Louise Raymond
