Dear Katrine,

Here is the list, as I promised. There will be a few more names but if you will let me have some invitations, I will send them out when I get the addresses.

If you would like me to take care of the entire list, will you have one of your girls check it for duplications, against your list.

The cantaloupe arrived and they are yum-yum. Fortunately for some of my relatives, they came for a visit just in time to share the melons.

Mrs. Biggs will be in New York, at the Madison Hotel, Madison Avenue and 58 Street, from September 26th, to October 8, just in case you wish to get in touch with her. Any mail addressed to my home will always get me, even if I am not home, as my husband always sends them on to me airmail. I will come down with Mrs. Biggs on the eighth and will call you.

Sincerely,

Louise Raymond
