

CHARLES T. HICKS
342 MADISON AVENUE
NEW YORK, N.Y.

✓ 1

October 28, 1947

AIRMAIL

My dear Mr. Carter,

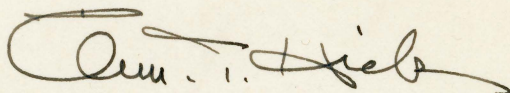

Your kind invitation to attend the unveiling ceremonies in Fort Worth on November 4th, including the luncheon at Shady Oak Farm has just been received, and Mrs. Hicks and I are very grateful for your kind thoughtfulness.

Unfortunately, it will not be possible for Mrs. Hicks to get away from New York at this time, but I accept the invitation with a great deal of pleasure.

I expect to arrive at Fort Worth on Monday afternoon, and will be in touch with our mutual friend Mr. John Biggs.

I am quite sure this will be a great occasion and I am very happy indeed that I can be present.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Amon Carter
P O Box 1036
Fort Worth, Texas.

