Dear Amon:

On my return to town I have just read your invitation to attend the unveiling of the Will Rogers monument.

What a fine thing this is to do and what a great satisfaction and pleasure it must be for you to be concerned in it! My hearty congratulations on leading so fine and worthy a cause.

I wish most heartily I could be on hand, but I happen to be under unusually heavy pressure at the moment and do not see how I could possibly get away.

However, many thanks and best wishes for a wonderful occasion.

Sincerely yours,

W. A. Thomson
