

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Carter,

These lines on a piece of paper can never begin to express my thanks for all your wonderful hospitality.
Your gorgeous flowers in my suite, the orchids, and the perfume and all the wonderful Texas dinners. I have been completely overwhelmed by all the kindness that has been showered on me. You have been so gracious and I cannot say thank you enough. I hope you will come to Washington soon, so I may return the compliment. Most Cordially, Margaret Truman
