

Lucile Hartle

My dear Mr. and Mrs. Carter: We were so chagrined at not seeing you again to tell you what a beautiful time we had at your party -

After the dance was over, we proceeded to the Caladium, as per schedule, thinking everyone on the speaker's stand was following us, and we cried our own "Good Bye" to you there, but we cried with grief when -

We did see Mrs. Deakins, who very kindly invited us to Mrs.
Deaf's cocktail party and lunch dinner at the Country Club.

Since "Scrappy" had to take off for Houston this morning at ten o'clock, we decided it was best not to stay over last night, much as we would have loved it -

I can't begin to tell you how very much we enjoyed being with Jane both at our tear, lovely party and meeting Jane's delightful friends. It was, indeed, a gala occasion, so well planned and carried out.

I feel so elegantly dressed up with my gorgeous orchid bouquets and I do thank you so very much for your thoughtfulness.

It was so nice meeting you, Mrs. Carter, and as I did you yesterday, your picture in the paper was very beautiful, but it certainly did not do you justice. How kind Mrs.
Carter must be of you and justly so!

Thank you with all our hearts for giving us so much pleasure yesterday and with scrappys and my quilted notes & pen love to you.

With cordial love
Maudie - Lucie Clark H. H.
