FORT WORTH

Nov. 5, 1947.

My dear friends:

Before getting away for appointments elsewhere, I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the kindness and hospitality extended to Hazel and me on this delightful visit home. Also I want to add with emphasis our hearty congratulations upon the marvelous manner in which you arranged and carried out a matchless program of performance at the luncheon, the unveiling Ceremonies, and the fine dinner. And, along with all these heartfelt sentiments, our admiration and affection are extended in abundant measure.

The best of everything to each of you.

Sincerely your friend,
Anity G. Towhauer.
