

ATTENTION OF STUDENT COUNSELLORS is called to Commission VI, page 162, "Education Adequate for Modern Times", the report of the Detroit Student-Faculty Conference, 1931. This reference deals with the following problem areas:

1. Problems relating to courses and extra-curricular activities.
2. Matters of religious faith.
3. Financial difficulties and long working hours.
4. Social and personal adjustments.
5. Moral problems.
6. Love affairs.
7. Conflict of loyalties.
8. Intellectual and emotional difficulties.
10. Vocational guidance.

This book is being made available in the Library.

Salary checks are being given out today. They will come in handy; then the long, dry season until January 30 will follow. "Oh, me!" SINCERE WISHES FOR A JOYOUS HOLIDAY SEASON!
