

ONE FACULTY MEMBER has turned in his grade sheets already. Thanks! Early reports enable the office to serve our patrons with promptness and efficiency. Who'll be next? All grade reports are to be turned in not later than noon Monday, the 18th.

BULLETIN BOARDS ARE TO BE ASSIGNED AND PROPERLY USED through cooperative effort of the Student Council and the Administration. This is a step in the right direction and will avoid confusion. You will soon hear more about the plan. It will do away with reckless, thoughtless, useless, heartless habits obnoxious to all cooperative souls on the campus who know what a Bulletin Board is for.

THE T. C. U. LECTURES COMMITTEE WILL PRESENT Doctor R. B. Stringfield of the University of Southern California as its second lecturer of the present season. ✓

Dr. STRINGFIELD WILL DEMONSTRATE some of the modern methods of commercial chemistry. He has a portable stage laboratory and will make some plastics, fabrics, and other products for his audience.

PLACE: T. C. U. Auditorium

DATE: November 14, 1940, Thursday

TIME: 8:00 p.m.

ADMISSION: Free to students, faculty, and friends
