

THE SPIRIT OF THANKSGIVING REIGNS IN THE REGISTRAR'S Office, because our teachers have been prompt in turning in their grade reports for mid-semester. We appreciate this fine response.

DOUBLE ABSENCES ARE COUNTED FOR THE LAST RECITATION before the holidays granted this coming Saturday, November 23, for the Rice trip, also the first recitation immediately following this holiday. The same procedure should be followed in relation to the Thanksgiving holiday period which will include Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, November 23 to December 1.

SCRATCH PAPER IS AVAILABLE IN THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE if any department heads need paper for use in their offices. This paper has been mimeographed on one side, but the back side would make good scratch paper or second sheet.

COUNSELORS OF FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORES MAY NOW COME to the REGISTRAR'S OFFICE and consult the permanent record cards of their counselee for information to be used in following up the good work already done this fall in counseling students. Now while the information is fresh is the best time to use it for this purpose, and the executive committee of the counselor would urge action at this time before the students go home for the holidays. The valuable guidance given recently through the help of our personnel committee can be followed up with good effect just now.

A MESSAGE FROM S.M.U. EXTENDS THE INVITATION TO OUR faculty members to attend the meetings of the Institute of Human Relations in the southwestern region of the National Conference of Christians and Jews to be held in McFarlin Auditorium, S.M.U., beginning 11 a.m., December 5 with President Rainey of the University of Texas presiding and Bishop Lucy of Amarillo, Rabbi Lazon of New York and Dr. Frank Kingdon of New Jersey as speakers. At noon a faculty luncheon follows with Dr. Robert McElroy of Princeton, speaker. The program continues through the 6th and 7th.
