

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 6, 1933.

My dear Mr. Carter:

Just a word to advise you that the smoked turkey was received by the President, and that following its consumption he made some very appropriate remarks, indicating to me that it was both a novelty and a treat.

I am keeping you in mind with respect to the autographed photo and as soon as I run across a good one will send it along to you.

Sincerely yours,

M. H. McINTYRE
Assistant Secretary to the President.

Amon G. Carter, Esq.,
President, Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth,
Texas.
