Form 21

Fort Worth, Texas,
December 24, 1933

President Franklin D. Roosevelt,
White House,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President: If this nation ever doubted there is a Santa Claus that doubt should be removed now STOP You are its Santa Claus for through your inspiring leadership and the constructive and humanitarian policies you have inaugurated the nation this year is enjoying its happiest and best Christmas in four years STOP The old spirit of dejection is gone, drooping shoulders are squared, faces are turned forward and the old spirit of hope and courage that ever have characterized the American people has reasserted itself STOP You and Mrs. Roosevelt have been an inspiration to the people of this nation not only for what you have done but for the magnificent spirit you have shown at all times and I wish for both of you and your loved ones not only the happy Christmas that I know you will have but an abundance of health, happiness and good fortune in the years to come and for this nation the rare good fortune of having your example and able leadership for as long in the future as you may care to exert them. Sincerely,

Amon G. Carter
