Fort Worth, Texas,
June 2, 1936.

Honorable Marvin H. McIntyre,
Assistant Secretary to President Roosevelt,
White House,
Washington, D.C.

Byron Utecht,

Dear Marvin: Would it possible for the Star-Telegram to have its staff correspondent, / who has represented us in Austin for the past fifteen years to join the Presidential special train at Little Rock, making the trip through Texas, thereby giving the Star-Telegram an opportunity to present to its one hundred and seventy five thousand subscribers a little personal touch in connection with the news originating on the presidential trip STOP Naturally this would be at our expense. I hope it will be consistent for you to grant me this request STOP We have a fine program laid out for the President's trip to Fort Worth in which I am sure that both he and you will be delighted. I am looking forward to the special party at the farm for you, Jesse and the newspaper boys the same night that the President has dinner with Elliott. Best regards.

Amon G. Carter.
