Fort Worth, Texas,
December 25, 1936

President Roosevelt,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President: I know that with most of your family present this is a great Christmas day for you and Mrs. Roosevelt STOP But it is also a great day for the great majority of our citizens, for thanks to your great human understanding and your fine and courageous efforts we are observing the best Christmas that it has been our good fortune to observe for many years STOP I hope the smoked turkeys and the Shady Oak pickles hold out and I wish for you, Mrs. Roosevelt and the members of your family the greatest possible measure of health, happiness and prosperity, not only in the New Year but all the years to come. Sincerely

Amon G. Carter.
