Send the following message, subject to the terms on back hereof, which are hereby agreed to

Fort Worth, Texas,
June 3, 1937.

Mrs. Franklin B. Roosevelt,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.

We are very gratified and pleased that you have graciously consented to invite Mr. Everitt Marshall to come to the White House on either the twelfth or thirteenth of this month for dinner and given him an opportunity of singing for the first time for the President and yourself the songs which will be sung this year at the Frontier Fiesta and the songs sung during the Frontier Centennial last year by him ~~Marshall~~ STOP Mr. Marshall is one of the outstanding baritones of the country and formerly of the Metropolitan in New York and this year and last year served as the star of Casa Manana at the Fort Worth Show. Either date which will suite you and the President best will be entirely satisfactory and if you will be good enough to notify me in Fort Worth as to the date selected I will see that he will be present for dinner that night and at the hour you specify STOP Would it be presumptuous on my part to suggest that the composer, Miss Dana Suess, of these songs be invited with Mr. Marshall in order to serve as his accompanist. With full appreciation and thanks to you and the President for your friendly cooperation. Sincerely,

Amon Carter
