

November 30, 1937.

Mr. Thomas J. Qualters,
Personal Body Guard to President Roosevelt,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Qualters:

On my return home, I finally dug up your letter wherein you ask me for a picture of the President signing the guest book at Shady Oak Farm and which I am happy to enclose, herewith.

I trust you will accept my apology for not acknowledging your letter sooner, but frankly, when I returned home in this instance, there was an accumulation of mail on my desk. I made another trip - in fact two more trips - and by that time there was such an accumulation of unanswered mail I was unable to unravel all of it - hence the delay in sending you the picture.

I am, With best wishes for a Merry Christmas,

Sincerely,

AGC.KD
