

President Bestows His Blessings Upon Two Senator-Supporters of New Deal

Dutch Branch, Where President to Visit, Seen From Air

Bulkley Is Indorsed When Roosevelt Tour Makes Stop at Marietta, Ohio.

Praise for Barkley in Kentucky Is Tempered With Compliments for Chandler.

ABOARD PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S TRAIN EN ROUTE TO OKLAHOMA CITY, July 8 (AP).—President Roosevelt gave his blessings to two New Deal Senators seeking re-nominations during the day and tonight stopped a few minutes in the home town of Senator Logan of Kentucky to laud him.

Stopping first at Marietta, Ohio, on his swing to the Pacific Coast, Roosevelt indorsed Senator Robert Bulkley, being opposed for the Democratic nomination by former Governor George White.

The complete text of President Roosevelt's address at Covington, Ky., yesterday afternoon is to be found on Page 13.

Later at Covington, Ky., he had words of praise for Senator Alben Barkley, Senate floor leader, but tempered his remarks with compliments for Governor A. B. Chandler, opposing Barkley. Early in the evening at Louisville he commended Senator Barkley's usefulness to the Nation without mentioning the name of Chandler.

Praises Logan.

At Bowling Green, the President said Senator M. M. Logan, Kentucky's junior Senator, had "stood firm" last Spring against "dragging the judiciary into a political campaign."

Prior to the announcement of Governor Chandler for the Senate seat held by Barkley, there were reports that Logan might resign to accept a position in the judiciary, clearing the way for Chandler's appointment to the Senate.

President Roosevelt again took the occasion at Bowling Green to speak in praise of Senator Barkley, citing the latter's experience in national affairs.

Barkley introduced Roosevelt at Bowling Green and thanked the crowd for their presence at the station for the brief platform appearance of the President.

Is "Pushing On."

Senator Barkley boarded the presidential special in Ohio. Governor Chandler met Roosevelt at Cincinnati, across the river from Covington. Barkley accompanied the President as far as Bowling Green. Chandler left the presidential party at Covington.

Surrounded by thousands at Marietta at the unveiling of a monument to pioneer settlers of Ohio, he told his listeners he was "pushing

(TURN TO PAGE 2, COLUMN 2.)

PALESTINE ARAB STRIKES GROW

JERUSALEM, July 8 (AP).—A wave of Arab strikes spread through Palestine today, complicating the problem of British authorities endeavoring to crush a bloody outbreak of Jewish-Arab guerrilla warfare.

A spontaneous strike movement began immediately after a new incident in a swift series of outrages—a bomb explosion at Jerusalem's Jaffa Gate in which four Arabs were killed and 36 wounded.

Three Jews and a 12-year-old schoolgirl were arrested following the explosion. Arab bystanders alleged the girl threw the bomb, which tore apart a bus filled with Arab countryfolk.

Authorities refused to disclose the Dutch Branch from the sky yesterday was this sleepy pastoral scene, as the farm hands went about their everyday chores. From tonight until Monday morning, it will shelter President Roosevelt during a breathing spell, as he visits his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Roosevelt.

—Photo by Paul McAllister of The Star-Telegram from a plane piloted by Ed Ritchey.

Roosevelts' Benbrook Estate Scene Serene

Cameraman Catches Sleepy Picture of Home Which Receives President Today.

A mosquito can't get past the corps of secret service men guarding the Elliott Roosevelt home near Benbrook, and yet—

A party composed of neither relatives nor magicians got within wiggling distance of the sprawling house at Dutch Branch yesterday—and no secret service sphinx ques-field hands were baling hay and stacking it in neat little plateaus.

A crew with a grading machine was leveling the bumps off the winding dirt road which leads up to the house on the slope.

Both the garage and the barn sported new shingle roofs.

Horses and heifers grazed on the

OKLAHOMANS AWAIT SPEECH

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 8 (AP).—Effect of direct intervention of President Roosevelt in the Oklahoma Democratic primary, expected tomorrow in a speech at the Oklahoma City fairgrounds, posed a riddle for state politicians which will not be solved until the election Tuesday.

Three senatorial contenders will be on hand—Senator Elmer Thomas, apparently confident of a presidential indorsement; E. W. Marland, New Deal Governor who said he did not believe the President would try to "coerce" the voters, and

President's Speech 'Didn't Knock Him Out,' So Chandler Happily Tells Friends 'We're In'

COVINGTON, Ky., July 8 (AP). — Governor A. B. Chandler wasn't, in his own words, "knocked out" by President Roosevelt's political blessing today on Senator Alben W. Barkley.

"Any time the President can't knock you out, you're all right," declared Chandler after bidding farewell to the President on his special train.

A crowd immediately surged around the linen-suited Governor. "What did the President say to you?" and "What did you tell the President?" were questions the crowd asked.

His answer was drowned out by numerous requests for autographs.

Moments later, the Governor, who seeks to unseat Barkley in the Democratic primary next month, was heard to say:

"The speech (referring to the President's) was all right. He didn't say anything he already hadn't said and that was he was for Barkley."

He signed a few more autographs, wiped perspiration from his face, looked around the crowd and asserted:

"We're in."

He repeated that statement several times, adding, in response to a question, that he didn't want to ride on the President's special train because "one man on the President's coat tails is enough."

That Kentuckians enjoyed the spectacle was evidenced by the remark of one man:

"Some show wasn't it?" he asked a companion.

"Yeah," was the reply, "all we gotta do now is vote."

Chief Executive to Speak at Booneville.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 8 (AP). President Roosevelt will interrupt his transcontinental tour tomorrow for a platform speech at Booneville, Ark., about 10 a. m.

Supporters of Senator Hattie W. Caraway who announced the previously unscheduled stop, immediately predicted the Chief Executive would take advantage of the occasion to indorse her candidacy for re-nomination at the Aug. 9 Democratic primary.

Mrs. Caraway and Senator John E. Miller of Searcy will board the train here and ride to Booneville.

McAlester Added to 'Appearance' List.

WASHINGTON, July 8 (AP).—Marvin McIntyre, secretary to President Roosevelt, telegraphed Representative Cartwright of Oklahoma from Ohio today the President would make a brief platform appearance from his train at McAlester, Okla., shortly after noon tomorrow.

Kinsfolk Battle for Right to Handle Boy's $50,000

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8 (AP). — Kinsfolk battled today for the custody of Lucius Walts, 9, and the right to handle the $50,000 insurance money that became Lucius' when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Walts, died in the crash of a TWA airliner on a peak in Yosemite National Park last March 1.

Principals who went before Superior Judge Sylvain Lazarus seeking the boy's custody yesterday were Fred Walts of Reno, Nev., the boy's grandfather, and Mrs. Alice E. Reels, San Francisco, an aunt.

Walts declared the boys' parents had specified in a joint will he was to have custody in the event of their deaths.

Mrs. Reels asserted Walts' home was not a fit place for the boy to live.

Judge Lazarus learned that Walts was 65 years old, that he had been married since his son's death in the airplane crash and that the present Mrs. Walts was 44 years old and that Walts was her fourth husband.

"How long have you known your wife?" asked Judge Lazarus.

"Last Fourth of July," Walts said, "the rodeo came along. I had a red silk shirt. But because I was working that day, I let her have it to wear. I have always thought that red shirt was the spark that started our romance."

"Can a man be romantic at 65?" the judge asked. "I'm asking for my own future reference. Maybe you are just an optimist."

"Well, maybe I am," Walts replied; "but if I can't be romantic, then I don't know what I'd be."

The Nevada man said he formerly was a school teacher and rancher and at one time possessed a fortune of $200,000, but that he had lost all of it but $12,000.

Mrs. Reels told the court the surroundings in her home were favorable for Lucius' development, and that in San Francisco he would have the companionship of Billie Reels, his 9-year-old cousin.

BLESSINGS FOR 2 NEW DEALERS

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

on" like the pioneer to find a solution to social and economic problems and expressed the hope "you will push on with me."

The President spoke at Latonia race track, near Covington, saying he wanted to "make it definite and clear" that he was "not interfering in any shape, manner or form in the primary campaign in Kentucky."

Then discussing the senatorial primary campaign, Roosevelt said there was "no doubt" Governor Chandler would be the first to admit that it would take many, many years "to match the national knowledge the experience and the acknowledged leadership in affairs of the Nation" of that of Barkley.

At Louisville the President told a cheering station crowd that he wanted to congratulate residents of the city on the courage they showed during the flood of last year. He said the flood had made citizens "better neighbors" during the process of rebuilding.

Japs Again Warn U. S. Vessels Along Yangtze

SHANGHAI, July 9 (Saturday) (AP).—Japanese authorities warned the United States and other neutral powers today that neutral vessels and citizens along an 80-mile stretch of the Yangtze River were endangered by spreading warfare.

The warning, in memoranda sent to diplomatic representatives of the neutral powers, stressed the "desirability of voluntary evacuation" along the Yangtze between Pukow, opposite Nanking, and Wanghsikong, half way to Hankow, China's provisional capital.

In particular it cautioned against remaining in the 80-mile stretch above Kiukiang, 135 miles downstream from Hankow.

The area outlined included Kiukiang itself, where there were American and British gunboats and citizens, and Kuling, a hitherto untouched mountain resort where a number of Americans and other foreigners have sought safety.

The announcement referred to previous communications asking evacuation of river stretches, which American and British authorities had rejected, and declared Japanese "regretted" the replies which pointed out the neutral naval vessembled and tested at points in Eastern Turkestan, near the western border of Mongolia.

He added that scenes of "tremendous activity" prevailed at the assembly points, indicating the work was being rushed to aid the Chinese defense of Hankow.

Included in the 200 aircraft, it was said, were 11 four-engined super-bombers of the latest type, capable of extremely long range operations and equipped with what were called "fearsome" destructive weapons.

It was believed the planes represented a long term credit purchase by China.

A new group of Chinese pilots now undergoing most intensive training will fly the craft being assembled to Hankow, it was understood.

Guerrillas Capture Peiping Light Plant.

PEIPING, July 8 (AP). — Chinese guerrillas captured the Peiping electric light plant outside the city walls yesterday and held it for 10 hours.

They retired without harming the machinery and with but one per-

REPORT DEATH OF EX-RESIDENT

C. M. Herring Jr., 34, former resident of Fort Worth; his wife and three other Americans were drowned Thursday when an oil company launch exploded in the Persian Gulf, according to word received here yesterday by Herring's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Herring of 1613 Virginia Place.

The information was telephoned them by a daughter, Mrs. Pauline McFarland of San Francisco, who said news reached there in a cable. It was reported that four native Persians also were on the boat, and that of the nine aboard only one American escaped. He was in the water all night before being picked up, and was expected to die from burns and exposure.

The Fort Worth residents were told that the launch was owned by the Bahrein Petroleum Company, a Subsidiary of Standard Oil Company, and was between the mainland of Arabia and Bahrein Island when the explosion occurred. All the victims suffered severe burns before being pitched into the water, Mrs. McFarland said she understood, and Mr. and Mrs. Herring's bodies