Dear Mr. Carter:

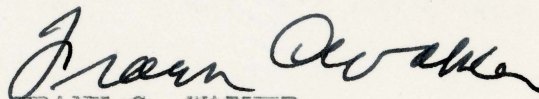

A very short and informal ceremony has been planned to take place at the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library at Hyde Park, New York, on Monday, June 30, 1941, at 4:00 P. M., Daylight Saving Time, at which time the President will dedicate the Library.

No formal invitations will be issued. However, because of your interest and assistance in the Library program, the President wanted you to know of the ceremony so that, if you desire, you and members of your immediate family might be present for it.

With kindest personal regards,
I am

Sincerely yours,
