Irwin-Keasler Building

Dear Mr. Cunningham:

Your letter of August 2 was buried in an accumulation of unanswered correspondence on Mr. Carter's desk, and uncovered Sunday preparatory to his leaving the city again, so Mr. Carter hopes you will accept his apology for the unusual delay in acknowledging your letter.

Attached herewith you will find a print of the picture you referred to, and it was made in 1906 during President Theodore Roosevelt's visit to Texas. Mr. Carter is glad to send it to you complimentary.

With reference to the last paragraph of your letter, permit me to say that Colliers, the Saturday Evening Post and Holiday Magazines have had articles on Mr. Carter, so the subject has been pretty well covered, although you would never recognize the facts as presented in any of these articles.

Again regretting the unusual delay in answering your letter, I am

Yours very truly,

Secretary to A. G. Carter
