

November 6, 1953.

Mr. Billy Rose
Ziegfeld Theater
1347 Sixth Avenue
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Rose:

Mr. Carter has asked that I write you this letter because of the shortness of time involved and you would be the quickest means of obtaining theater tickets for these people.

Mr. H. H. (Andy) Anderson, (Managing Director of the Texas Hotel which, as you know, is owned by Mr. Carter and Mr. Sid W. Richardson), and Mrs. Anderson will be in New York from November 8 to 13, and will be in Mr. Carter's apartment at the Carlton House.

Mr. Anderson is coming up to attend the National Hotel Exposition and, of course, like all Texans they want to see as many shows as possible during their visit. If you can get the tickets fine, and if not we will certainly understand it, and whatever part of them you may be able to get will be appreciated. They would like to go three nights, exclusive of November 10, and would like two tickets, if possible, to: "My Three Angels", "Me and Juliet", "Dial M For Murder", "Seven Year Itch", and "The Teahouse of the August Moon" preference in order listed. If possible, Mrs. Anderson would like to go to two matinee shows: "Picnic" and "Wonderful Town."

We don't want you to go to any undue trouble to get these tickets, and if you are able to do anything at all, would you mind asking your office to call Mr. or Mrs. Anderson, or leave a message at the Carlton House, Apartment 8-B, TEmpleton 8-3000, and they will be glad to pick up and pay for them. If the time were not so short we would not impose upon you by this request, and would make efforts direct, but we hope you appreciate the circumstances.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

KD:mmm

Secretary to A. G. Carter