Dear Mr. Carter:

I greatly appreciate your thoughtful and generous telegram on the selection of Niles Trammell as president of the National Broadcasting Company.

I share your high opinion of Mr. Trammell, and it has given me great pleasure to recommend him for this important post, and I am particularly pleased to receive statements of confidence as expressed by yourself and many of our affiliated stations. I am sure that we can look forward to continued fine relations between our respective organizations.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,
