Washington, D.C.

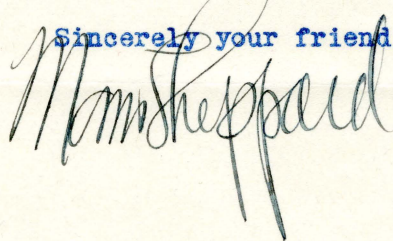

Dec. 7, 1936

Dear Amon:

I am in receipt of your letter of November 20, enclosing letter from Melvin Diggs in reference to his desire for employment here in order to attend school at George Washington University. I note that he expects to be in Washington about December 15, and I suggest you have him call to see me on his arrival here. I shall be glad to assist him in every way I can.

I note the porter failed to wake Tom, and I think I'll send him a pocket alarm clock.

Sincerely your friend,

Hon. Amon G. Carter, President
