COMMITTEE ON MILITARY AFFAIRS

January 11, 1941.

D. ROLAND POTTER, CLERK
W. I. SMALLEY, ASST. CLERK

Dear Amon:

I am in receipt of the confirmation copy of your telegram addressed to the President, and I thank you for your thoughtfulness in allowing me to have a copy.

You have expressed my opinion exactly. I believe that the President is correct in his viewpoint as to the best method in keeping the United States out of war, and I am, therefore, supporting his program.

I thank you for your views, and I am glad to know that you favor such a policy.

Yours very sincerely,

Morris Sheppard
