

THE FLIGHT

Pan American's first with passengers from America to Asia.

THE ROUTE

Alameda, Honolulu, Midway, Wake, Guam, Manila, Macao, Kowloon, Hong Kong and return - 17,544 miles.

The Ship

Pan American Airways' Philippine Clipper

THE HOSTS

Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, chairman of the board, Pan American Airways.

Jaun T. Trippe, president, Pan American Airways

THE GUESTS

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney
Mrs. Jaun T. Trippe
Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo
Senator William Gibbs McAdoo
Edward O. McDonnell, director, Pan American
Graham B. Grosvenor, director, Pan American
Roy W. Howard, Scripps-Howard Newspapers
Paul Patterson, Baltimore Sun
Thomas H. Beck, Crowell Publishing Co
Edgar M. Swasey, Hearst's American Weekly
Amon G. Carter, Ft. Worth Star-Telegram
James G. Stahlman, Nashville Banner
Robert A. Lord, Secretary to Mr. Trippe

THE CREW

Capt. J. H. Tilton
First Officer Fred S. Ralph
Second Officer H. R. Canaday, navigator
Third Officer W. M. Masland
Fourth Officer C. M. Green, engineer
Fifth Officer A. V. Beideman, radio
Steward-Purser Ivan H. Parker, Jr