Mr. Amon Carter
Room 925
Ritz Carlton Hotel
New York City

Dear Mr. Carter:

This will confirm my telegram of earlier in the day, informing you that Mr. George Mixter (Director of P. A. A.) will unfortunately be unable to attend the dinner.

I now find that Mr. John S. Woodbridge, Treasurer of Pan American will be able to, and would like to attend the dinner. You will recollect he was not certain inasmuch as his wife had been ill. Apparently, she has recovered quite sufficiently, so that he is not apprehensive about leaving her. Accordingly I have extended him your invitation.

Sincerely yours,

E. E. Wyman
Assistant to the president
