Dear Amon:

Many thanks for the first flight cover to Macao which you sent me. Aside from the fact that it is a perfect cover, I shall regard it highly-in that being sent and routed by you (Governor of Wake Island), it brings back recollections of that first passenger flight we all made together over this route last Fall.

The silver globe which you presented to me at the reunion dinner at New York enjoys the place of honor on our library table. Betty joins me in hoping that you will let us know when you are next going to be in New York and plan to join us one evening on that occasion.

With best regards,

Sincerely,
