President Truman

The White House

Washington, D. C.

My Dear Mr. President: I wish to add mine to the many congratulatory messages I know you must have received on your appointment of Mr. Byrnes as secretary of state. You are not only to be congratulated upon the wisdom of your choice but the American people are to be congratulated on having the services ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ of one so fine and able in such an important post. ~~xxxxxxx~~. Mr. Byrnes has distinguished himself in every ^{post} in which he ~~xxx~~ has served and his long experience and ability should make him one of the greatest secretaries of ^{state} /this nation ever has had. No better recognition of his ability or greater evidence of the esteem in which he is held could have been had than his quick and unanimous confirmation by the senate. ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ Sincerest regards and all good wishes. "mon G. Carter,
