W. G. VOLLMER,
PRESIDENT

January 7, 1946

Dear Mr. Carter:

Thanks for sending me a copy of your telegram to President Truman of December 24th. You have definitely outlined to him a policy which he would do well to adopt for you have hit the nail exactly on its head. It is too bad that more advices to the President from men in high places and in large affairs are not being forwarded to him. If there was only some way to get this done it would be very helpful.

With sincere personal regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
