Dear Amon:

Thank you for sending me the copy of your telegram of December 24th to President Truman.

You've hit the nail right on the head. Your arguments are forceful and logical. Plainly, the United Automobile Workers union plan to require the submission of a company's books in a wage dispute is unsound, impracticable and dangerous.

I am glad you put the matter up to the President, as you did, and I hope he will stop, look and listen. In fact, I hope he will go much further than that and be guided what you have said to him.

Sincerely,

Edwin S. Friendly
