

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives

Washington, D. C.

February 6, 1947.

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

The enclosed letter from Matthew J. Connelly, Secretary to the President, conveys unfavorable news which I regret to send to you. However, Mr. Rayburn has informed me that he has answered your wire and that you are already cognizant of the situation.

Please do not fail to call upon me if I can ever be of service to you.

Very truly yours,

Wingate H. Lucas

FEB 10 1947